

RRTA Route & Schedule Modifications

Effective
Monday, March 31, 2025

Since the November 2024 Route & Schedule Changes, customer comments have been collected from emails, the RRTA GoMobile app, social media & Feedback Friday events. This has led to schedule modifications on certain routes that need to happen now.

Beyond these modifications, RRTA will continue to review route performance on all routes. The annual Route & Schedule process will begin soon with a tentative plan of possible changes effective Fall 2025.

The following are the details of the current modifications that will go into effect on March 31, 2025.

Route 6/Hawthorne Centre - Walmart

The Route 6/Hawthorne Centre - Walmart bus route will now serve a portion of Manheim Pike currently not being served.

After the bus travels to Hawthorne Center, it will make a left on Fruitville Pike to left on Granite Run Drive, then turn left onto Manheim Pike. The bus route will travel along Manheim Pike past Plaza Blvd. to left on Steel Way. The bus will continue & serve Red Rose Commons and the Shoppes at Belmont traveling inbound to Lancaster City. A map of the modified schedule will be available on the RRTA website.

Route 12/New Holland Bus Stop Change @ Queen Street Station

The RRTA Route 12/New Holland bus stop currently located at Queen Street Station will move to Chestnut Street in front of the Lancaster County Government Center. As of March 31, 2025, this will be the permanent Downtown bus stop for the Route 12/New Holland.
